The Study is designed to improve environmental variables (chemical, biological, physical, psychosocial), as well as gene environment interactions on pregnancy outcomes, as

The National Children’s Study, the methods

How well did we cover the births in the segments?

Does our sample resemble the total births in the city?

How well did we cover the births in the city?

Does our sample resemble the total births in the city?