

Cultural Rendering to Serve Latino and Somali Portlanders

“Table Talks”

Parents Connecting for Alcohol-Free Youth

To access PDF's of Parental Monitoring Tips in Spanish, Somali, as well as the English rendering of these tips visit: <http://www.maineparents.net/>

To learn more about Table Talks, visit:

<http://www.maine.gov/dhhs/samhs/osa/prevention/adult/tabletalks/>

To access the Parental Monitoring Tips in their original English version, visit:

<http://www.maineparents.net/monitoring/index.htm>

21 Reasons is funded through the Drug Free Communities Program, and the Healthy Maine Partnerships Substance Abuse Prevention program.

Jo Morrissey

jmorrissey@mcdph.org (207) 773-7737

48 Free Street, Suite 208, Portland, ME 04101

Minority Health Program is a part of the Portland Public Health and Human Services Department., serving the minority health communities in Cumberland County, Maine. Funding provided by the City of Portland and Maine's Substance Abuse Mental Health Services.

Kolawole Bankole, MD, MS

bak@portlandmaine.gov (207) 874-8773389 Congress Street, Portland, ME 04101

